

SPRING 2016

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT: D.C. COMMUNITY CONFLICT DYNAMICS

Independent Study Project Description

This project will lay the groundwork for an upcoming Conflict Resolution Apprenticeship Summer Institute, jointly run by GWU, CIT and the IMCP, for students interested in practicing their conflict resolution skills in life settings. Student teams will complete the following activities during the Spring 2016:

- Map Diaspora communities and crime in the DC area
- Assess social structures and conflict dynamics
- Build community relationships and develop partnerships
- Write a final report summarizing lessons learned

CONTACT

Nathalie Al-Zyoud
nalzyoud@
communitiesintransition.com

RECRUITING

2 teams of 3-4 graduate students

DURATION

January 11th – April 30th, 2016

PARTNERS

Communities in Transition

International Mediators
Community of Practice